

WORLD JUNIOR ATHLETIC CHAMPIONSHIPS

Updated at 1 April 2022

These championships are organized by the IAAF for junior aged athletes and have been held biennially since 1986.

A Junior athlete is defined as: Nineteen (19) years or younger at 31 December in the year of competition.

1986	Peter Baxevanis	Hammer Throw	57.34m	DNQ final
1988	Julian Paynter Greg Whitfield*	5000m 800m	15:01.34 1:54.03	24 th 27 th
1990	Rohan Robinson Tim Forsyth*	400m Hurdles High Jump	49.73 2.29m	GOLD SILVER
1992	Tim Forsyth	High Jump	2.31m	SILVER
1994	Michael Power	1500m	3:43.86	5 th
1998	Andrew Martin	Javelin	66.12m	7 th
2004	Sean Wroe	400m	46.80	6 th
2010	Rhydian Cowley	10km Walk	44:49.42	17 th

Other Junior Competitions

- Commonwealth Youth Games:
Began 2000 for athletes 14 to 18 years in the year of competition.
- World Youth Championships:
Began 1999 for athletes 17 or younger in the year of the competition.
- Youth Olympics:
Began 2010 for athletes 14 to 18 years in the year of competition.
- World Student Games (Universiade):
Began in 1959 and held biennially. Also various precursor games prior to 1959.
- Australian Youth Olympic Festival:
Began 2001 for athletes 13 to 19 years in the year of competition.